several people will be attending Polis

6. One stop booking extension

- The Strategic Committee requested to look for possibilities to simplify the TOMP-API for public transport operators.
- Public transport does not have availability issues, since you can not book a certain spot in a train or bus. Edwin suggests to merge the planning and booking endpoint for specific transport types to simplify the API specification. This makes it easier (for some transport operators) to implement the TOMP-API. On the other hand, for MaaS providers it might become a bit more complex, since there will be multiple ways to book.
- The attendees of the meeting like the idea of creating a new endpoint to simplify the process.
- The topic will be discussed more in depth in the next meeting.

7. AOB

- Public Mobility in France has an event on sept 14th.
No report/slides received from the meeting in Brussels (Tu-Tho will share when available).

Next online meeting (working session #69) will be on Wednesday 28-9-2022, 10:00h
